“Every time a bride and groom stand there and take their vows, they are reenacting the biblical love story, whether they realize it or not. The Son of God stepping down out of eternity, entering time, taking on flesh, pursuing and winning his bride as his very heart and body with his inmost, sincerest love so that he can fit her to be with him forever—that dramatic super-reality is the breathtaking reason why human marriage exists. Human marriage has always been intended by God to serve as a prophetic whisper of the eternal marriage. It is truly profound.”

“Christian married couples have the privilege of making the mystery of the gospel visible in the world today by living out the dynamic interplay of an Ephesians 5–quality marriage...His love for her, with her respect for him, will display the eternal romance of Christ and the church, bringing the only lasting hope that exists into a brokenhearted world...Your imperfect marriage is, therefore, worth celebrating. Jesus thought so”.
