"The Lord knows the fears of his servants, knows how scared we are in our various circumstances. He knows our frame (Psalm 103:14). Yet God is not so strict as to be harsh when we tremble; he does not ridicule us for our fears; he never mocks us because we are fragile."

A dramatic landscape with mountains and a cloudy sky. The foreground features dark, jagged rock formations. In the background, rolling hills and mountains are visible under a sky with soft, white clouds. The overall tone is warm and atmospheric.

We sometimes dupe ourselves into thinking that a real servant of Christ is only someone who is dynamic, assured, confident, brash, fearless, witty, adventuresome, or glamorous. Don't think you are unusable because you don't have that air about you. Christ takes uncertain and fearful folk, strengthens their hands in the oddest ways, and make them able to stand for him

We must not forget how the writer of Hebrews describes those we sometimes call heroes of faith: They were weak people who were given strength to be brave in war and drive back foreign invaders." Hebrews 11:34
