Why Plant a Church?

Jesus is seek the lost and rejoicing in their salvation, and we want to join Him!

- Seeking the lost
- Rejoicing in their salvation

Flannery O'Conner

"I think it is safe to say that while the South is hardly Christ-centered, it is most certainly Christ-haunted."

Tim Keller

"The vigorous, continual planting of new congregations is the single most crucial strategy for (1) the numerical growth of the body of Christ in a city and (2) the continual corporate renewal and revival of the existing churches in a city. Nothing else—not crusades, outreach programs, parachurch ministries, growing megachurches, congregational consulting, nor church renewal processes—will have the consistent impact of dynamic, extensive church planting."

Three C's of Church Partnership

The relationships between our churches are distinguished by three things:

1. Meaningful Care
2. Radical Collaboration
3. Joyful Celebration
