

A hiker with a large backpack is walking away on a narrow dirt path that winds along a steep, grassy mountain slope. The path leads towards a vast, hazy valley. The sky is a pale, overcast grey, and the overall atmosphere is one of solitude and vastness.

Chrisitan, according to Eph 2:27 you have been redeemed from following the world, the devil, and your own desires, to now being saved by grace, seated with Jesus in the heavenly places, and to be a forever recipient of the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus!

With a rescue like that, submitting cannot be passive, it must be active!

"If the Lord wills, [is an understanding] that every moment of every day finds us in absolute surrender, abiding, and depending on the will of God. We are free to plan, free to dream, free to build, but in that freedom, we must have an unwavering faith and trust that as children of God, his way and will for our lives is always best and never thwarted."
