STAGGERED BY THE SPIRIT? LUKE 11:11-13

MAIN IDEA

The miracle of prayer is not that God answers, but that God gives himself as the answer to those who ask him

KEY QUESTIONS

- Who is the God who calls us to pray to Him?
- Why does God want to be known in prayer?
- What does God accomplish through our prayers?

CS LEWIS

- The most striking thing about our Lord is the union of great ferocity with extreme tenderness…not as extremes, but simultaneously both. He is the real man behind all the [anemic views] substituted for him. He’s the God who made the tiger and the lamb, the avalanche and the rose. He’ll frighten you and puzzle you, but the real Christ can be admired and loved.

JC RYLE

- The Holy Spirit is beyond doubt the greatest gift which God can bestow upon man. Having this gift, we have all things: life, light, hope, heaven, God the Son’s atoning blood and full communion with all three persons of the blessed Trinity.

PETER KREEFT

- I strongly suspect that if we saw all the difference even the tiniest of our prayers to God make, and all the people those little prayers were destined to affect, and all the consequences of those effects down through the centuries, we would be so paralyzed with awe at the power of prayer that we would be unable to get up off our knees for the rest of our lives.
