LUKE
GOOD NEWS OF GREAT JOY

Luke 16:19-31

Assuming we are in Abraham	(19-26)
Dismissing the power of God's Word	(27-29)
Proving Jesus is the Son of God	(30-31)

Key idea:

The choices we make now, matter for eternity.

The irony of verse 25

"The rich man who, while on earth…on account of his wealth, never needed to ask for anything from anybody else, now experiences such misery that he begs for help, even if it is only a single drop of water for his thirsty tongue, at the hand of the formerly despised beggar. Now, he, in his turn, is the beggar who yearns for relief from…the flame of remorse and eternal despair." (Geldenhuys)
